

ANZSEE Conference 2013 Program

Overview (as at 23 October)

Opportunities for the Critical Decade
Enhancing well-being within planetary boundaries

MONDAY 11 NOVEMBER		PRE-CONFERENCE MASTERCLASSES AND SPECIAL SESSIONS	Room
9:15	10:00	Registration; tea and coffee (available all day); please note lunch is not provided on Monday	Level 2 Foyer
Masterclasses		Pre-registration required via the conference delegate zone	Room
10:00	12:30	Chris Ansell Collaborative Governance: Why, When, and How?	Molonglo Theatre
1:30	3:00	Manuka Henare Indigenous Peoples' four well-beings in or of national and regional economic development.	Molonglo Theatre
3:30	5:00	Dipak Gyawali Interdisciplinary research practice	Molonglo Theatre
Special Sessions		Pre-registration required via the conference delegate zone	Room
1:00	2:40	Alan Randall (chair) Coastal Climate Adaptation Decision Making The science of decision making for informing coastal climate adaptation: Todd Sanderson (TBC), John Rolfe, Jennifer Price, Russell Gorddard plus Chris Lee and Alan Jones	Acton Theatre
3:10	5:00	Neil Lazarow (chair) The practice of decision making in coastal climate adaptation: Jo Mummery, Steve Blackley, Helen Scarborough, Clive Attwater plus Alan Stokes	Acton Theatre
TUESDAY 12 NOVEMBER		Water, food and energy security in warmer, more crowded, and (possibly) wealthier world
Proudly sponsored by CSIRO, Department of the Environment and the Murray Darling Basin Authority			Room
8:00	9:00	Registration; tea and coffee	Level 2 Foyer
9:00	10:30	Conference opening and welcome Plenary 1: John Thwaites Australia's sustainability – how are we tracking, and what are the challenges? (title to be confirmed)	Molonglo Theatre
10:30	11:00	Morning tea	Level 2 Foyer
11:00	12:30	Plenary 2: Richard Wilkinson How greater equality contributes to sustainability and quality of life	Molonglo Theatre
		Plenary 3: Fiona Dowsley Measuring what matters – the role of consultation in assessing (Australia's) progress	Molonglo Theatre
12:30	1:15	Lunch +	Level 2 Foyer
1:00	2:00	Lounge	Level 2 Foyer
2:00	3:35	Contributed session 1	See full program for details
3:35	4:00	Afternoon tea	Level 2 Foyer
4:00	5:35	Contributed session 2	See full program for details
5:35		Close of day
5:45	6:15	Early career researcher meeting	Fellows Bar
6:15	7:30	Network drinks	Fellows Bar
WEDNESDAY 13 NOVEMBER		Integrated methods for understanding and promoting regional resilience and transformation
Proudly sponsored by CSIRO, Department of the Environment and the Murray Darling Basin Authority			Room
8:00	8:30	Registration; tea and coffee	Level 2 Foyer
8:30	10:05	Contributed session 3	See full program for details

10:05	10:30	Morning tea		Level 2 Foyer
10:30	12:00	Plenary 4: Jon Altman	Political ecology and political economy of Indigenous land and property rights in Australia	Molonglo Theatre
		Plenary 5: Manuka Henare	Economy of Mana: Indigenous economics of affection, the good life and its four well-beings – spiritual, environmental, kinship-family, and economics	Molonglo Theatre
12:00	12:45	Lunch +		Level 2 Foyer
12:30	1:30	Lounge time		Level 2 Foyer
12:30	1:30	ANZSEE AGM		Lennox Room
1:30	3:35	Plenary 6: Juliet Christian-Smith	Twenty-first century governance for water and watersheds under increasing stress – insights from the EU and US (title TBC)	Molonglo Theatre
		Plenary 7: Dipak Gyawali	Promoting real energy and water security – a view from Nepal (title TBC)	Molonglo Theatre
3:35	4:00	Afternoon tea		Level 2 Foyer
4:00	5:35	Contributed session 4		See full program for details
5:35		Close of day
6:30	7:00	Pre-dinner drinks		Common Room, University House
7:00	10:00	Conference dinner and awards		Common Room, University House

THURSDAY 14 NOVEMBER		Governance for 21st century challenges – how can we enhance well-being within planetary boundaries?
Proudly sponsored by CSIRO, Department of the Environment and the Murray Darling Basin Authority				Room
8:00	8:30	Registration; tea and coffee		Level 2 Foyer
8:30	10:05	Contributed session 5		See full program for details
10:05	10:30	Morning tea		Level 2 Foyer
10:30	12:00	Plenary 8: Bob Costanza	Why transdisciplinary research is essential to achieving a sustainable and desirable future	Molonglo Theatre
		Plenary 9: Chris Ansell	Taking the Bull by the Tail: A Pragmatist Reflects on Unruly Problems	Molonglo Theatre
12:00	12:45	Lunch +		Level 2 Foyer
12:15	1:15	Lounge time		Level 2 Foyer
1:15	3:30	Plenary 10 - Roundtable	Panel discussion with plenary speakers	Molonglo Theatre
		Conference closing session		Molonglo Theatre
3:30	3:30	Afternoon tea		Level 2 Foyer
3:30	5:05	Contributed session 6		See full program for details
5:05		End of program		