

2024 ANZSEE Conference at Moreton Bay Research Centre, 37 Fraser Street, Dunwich, North Stradbroke Island

	Main Lecture Room (unless otherwise in brackets)	Second Lecture Room OR Meeting Room
	Day 1: Friday 4 October
3:15 to 4:00 PM	Registration Desk Open (Front deck of MBRS Building - Gather here for the Official Induction)
4:00 o 4:45 PM	Welcome to Country by Traditional Owner of Minjerribah (Across the road in grassy area)
4:45 to 5:00 PM	Welcome from ANZSEE Conference Chair, Dr Peter Daniels and ANZSEE President, Dr Boyd Blackwell accompanies by Welcome Drink with refreshment.
5:00 to 6:00 PM Plenary/Keynote	Joshua Farley (online presentation): Ecological limits and ecological ethics: insights from evolution and anthropology
18:00 PM	Dinner at own expense (The Brewery/Little Ship Inn - a short Walk from MBRS)
18:00 PM	End of DAY 1
	Day 2: Saturday 5 October
8:30 AM	Registration table opens & Induction briefing for new arrivals at Front deck of MBRS Building
9:00 to 10:00AM Plenary/Keynote	Paul Hardisty: How stories connect people, livelihoods and the environment

10:00 to 11:00AM General Presentations	Theme: Conserving natural ecosystems 1 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Chris Fleming: Twenty-five years of world heritage status: Show us the benefits! 2. Toni Carnard: Finding the triple bottom line in partially protected areas 3. Kamaljit K Sangha: Developing nature-based Solutions/Economies for Indigenous peoples in Australia: Opportunities and challenges. 	Themes: Ethics, Sustainable Transitions <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Peter Daniels: Was Buddha the first ecological Economist? 2. Scott Matter: Living societal transitions: learning from prototypes for socio-ecological well-being 3. Ben Robra: Contrasting Capitalist Values: Alternative Organisational Ethics through Degrowth Values
11:00 -11:30 AM	Morning Tea Break
11:30 - 12:30PM Panel session	Erik Gomez-Baggethun & Michelle Maloney, Has utilitarian environmentalism failed? Rethinking human-nature relationships
12:30 to 1:30PM Poster Presentations	Lunch Break and Poster Presentation: Jane O’Sullivan: Higher than anticipated population growth is a neglected threat to sustainable futures
1:30 - 2:30PM Plenary/Keynote	Anya Phelan: At the crossroads of business, society, and planet – plastic waste and remote communities
2:30 - 3:30PM Presentations	Waste 2 - Islands Under Threat <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Boyd Blackwell: Norfolk Island – Some economic and equity aspects of its reef systems 2. Susan Prior: Placing Norfolk Island’s in context – tentative 3. John Oxenford – Is it possible for Bribie island’s coastal environment to be sustainable and healthy? 	Climate Response 1 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Jim Crosthwaite: The rocky road to net zero: unpacking the conflicts and contestations in creating a gas-free economy. 2. Fabian Sack: Using environmentally extended input output analysis to reduce the health sector’s carbon footprint 3. Yoshihiko Wada & Lee Tan: The unequal exchange of the rare earth transitional mineral supply chains (Lee Tan to present)
3:30 - 4:00PM	Afternoon Tea Break
4:00 - 5:00PM Plenary/Keynote	Eszter Klemen (online presentation): The role of education in transformative change and the potential contribution of ecological economics

5:00 - 6:00 PM Presentations/ Workshop	Theme: Educating Change Agents <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Carla Liuzzo: Embedding Ecological Economics in Australian Business Education: Degrowth for Preparing Leaders for Sustainable Futures Louise Fitzgerald & Jinki Trevillian: Equipping Business Graduates for Global Complexity and Uncertain Times Ahead Fiona Ryan: Which climate policies are mutually beneficial for developing and developed economies? 	Workshop: Weaving a Basket of Benefits: Exploring Ecosystem Service Connections and Interactions across Landscapes, Scales, and Institutions, with Andrew Buckwell and Ed Morgan
6:30 - 7:00PM	Break
7:00 - 9:00 PM	Conference Dinner with Music (Upstairs Balcony, Additional $35/head for dinner). BYO musical instruments to jam with local musician, Paula Boo.

End of DAY 2

	Day 3: Sunday 6 October
8:30 - 9:00AM	Registration table opens & tea and coffee on arrival
9:00 - 10:00AM Keynote	Erik Gomez-Baggethun: The future of work: Insights from ecological economics
10:00 -11:00AM	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Jane O’Sullivan: Population growth, the labour market and inequality: why population peak and decline is a social as well as environmental imperative Cade Diehm: Beyond human centered design: digital systems and non-human expertise Cade Diehm: Anticipating a Green Panopticon 	Kamaljit Sangha & others - Panel Session : Indigenous ecosystem services values, fire management related carbon economy in the north, or the application of the proposed Nature Repair Market to the Indigenous estate.
11:00 - 11:30AM	Morning Tea Break
11:30 - 12:30PM Keynote	Tom Rayner: Fish out of water: Integrating ecology, economics & engagement to drive adoption of modern fish-protection screens
12:30 - 1:30PM	Lunch Break
12:45 - 1:30PM	ANZSEE AGM - All members welcome

1:30 - 2:30 PM Presentations	Fisheries ecological economics, Session 1 1. Boyd Blackwell : Fish and river restoration economic considerations within the context of fish screening 2. Lachlan Jaensch : Liquid assets balancing public and private benefits of fish protection screens 3. Andrew Buckwell : The social license of salmon agriculture in Tasmania fulfilling the social bargain	Food System Sustainability 1 1. Sabrina Chakori : Post-growth food enterprises in Australia: the role of exnovation 2. Priyambada Joshi : The future of beef production: from risk assessment to sustainable management 3. KC Adaina : Determinants of Household Decision Choice on Cooking Energy Fuel amongst the indigenous Zeliangrong Community in the Himalayan region of Rural Manipur, India: Do Cultural Practices Matter?
2:30 - 3:30 PM Keynote	Michelle Maloney: Building Earth-centred economies, ethics and governance in a time of crisis: the critical role of civil society
3:30 - 4:00PM	Afternoon Tea Break
4:00 - 5:00PM Workshop/Presentations	Governance 1. Paul Brown : Building Resilience in City Waste Management Systems: Supporting Public Reporting Towards Degrowth 2. Jordan Roods : Why Circular Economy's vision to 'regenerate nature' needs earth-centred governance 3. Rodrigo Zilleruelo Estanol : Discovering values and drivers for Nature-based Solutions (NbS): The association between relational values and NbS, evidence from a choice experiment in Australia	Food System Sustainability 2 & Restoration Ecology Economics 1 1. Van Thuy Dao : Value Addition in Agriculture: Evaluating the Effectiveness of Government Incentives and Programs 2. Khaqan Khasif : Australian farmer's perception of carbon farming and implication for broad acre agriculture. 3. Boyd Blackwell : Oyster reef restoration social cost-benefit analysis of the Port Stephens project
5:00 to 5:30PM	Conference recap and close
6:30 PM	Dinner at own expense (Book here if you need dinner at MBRS)
	End of DAY 3

Day 4: Monday 7 October - Optional Field trips

9:00 AM to 2:30 PM	Field trip options (please pick ONE HERE): 1. Gorge walk, Point Lookup (public transport) - free 2. Blue/brown Lake hike (6km return) - free/tour company 3. Moreton Bay boat trip - charge Followed by pub Lunch at the local hotel
12:30 - 2:30PM	Lunch at Point Lookout Hotel (at own cost, catch public bus or own transport - please RSVP) Note that the last water taxi leaves Dunwich at 7:55PM and the ferry leaves at 7:00PM