

2024 ANZSEE Conference at Moreton Bay Research Centre, 37 Fraser Street, Dunwich, North Stradbroke Island
	Main Lecture Room (unless otherwise in brackets)	Second Lecture Room OR Meeting Room
	Day 1: Friday 4 October
3:15 to 4:00 PM	Registration Desk Open (Front deck of MBRS Building - Gather here for the Official Induction)
4:00 o 4:45 PM	Welcome to Country by Traditional Owner of Minjerribah (Across the road in grass area)
4:45 to 5:00 PM	Welcome from ANZSEE Conference Chair and ANZSEE President and Weldome Drink with refreshment
5:00 to 6:00 PM Plenary/Keynote	Joshua Farley (online presentation): Ecological limits and ecological ethics: insights from evolution and anthropology
18:00 PM	Dinner at own expense (The Brewery/Little Ship Inn - Walk from MBRS)
18:00 PM	End of DAY 1
	Day 2: Saturday 5 October
8:30 am	Registration table opens & Induction briefing for new arrivals
9:00 to 10:00AM Plenary/Keynote	Paul Hardisty: How stories connect people, livelihoods and the environment
10:00 to 11:00AM General Presentations	Theme: Conserving natural ecosystems 1 1. Chris Fleming: Twenty-five years of world heritage status: Show us the benefits! 2. Toni Carnard: Finding the triple bottom line in partially protected areas 3. Kamaljit K Sangha: Developing nature-based Solutions/Economies for Indigenous peoples in Australia: Opportunities and challenges.	Themes: Ethics, Sustainable Transitions 1. Peter Daniels: Was Buddha the first ecological Economist? 2. Scott Matter: Living societal transitions: learning from prefigurative projects for socioecological well-being 3. Ben Robra: Contrasting Capitalist Values: Alternative Organisational Ethics through Degrowth Values
11:00 to 11:30 AM	Morning Tea Break
11:30AM to 12:30PM Panel session	Erik Gomez-Baggethun & Michelle Maloney, Has utilitarian environmentalism failed? Rethinking human-nature relationships
12:30 to 1:30PM Poster Presentations	Lunch Break and Poster Presentations: 1. Pramod Gautam: Achieving Net-Zero Emissions in Agriculture: Developing Decision Support Systems for Land and Enterprise Managers 2. Bhola Paudel: Smart farming of accessing agricultural sustainability using ESG framework
1:30 to 2:30PM Plenary/Keynote	Anya Phelan: At the crossroads of business, society, and planet – plastic waste and remote communities

2024 ANZSEE Conference at Moreton Bay Research Centre, 37 Fraser Street, Dunwich, North Stradbroke Island
	Main Lecture Room (unless otherwise in brackets)	Second Lecture Room OR Meeting Room
2:30 to 3:30PM General Presentations	Theme: Waste 2 - Islands Under Threat 1. Boyd Blackwell: Norfolk Island – Some economic and equity aspects of its reef systems 2. Susan Prior: Placing Norfolk Island's in context 3. John Oxenford – Is it possible for Bribie island's coastal environment to be sustainable and healthy?	Theme: Climate Response 1 1. Jim Crosthwaite: The rocky road to net zero: unpacking the conflicts and contestations in creating a gas-free economy. 2. Fabian Sack: Using environmentally extended input output analysis to reduce the health sector's carbon footprint 3. Yoshihiko Wada & Lee Tan: The unequal exchange of the rare earth transitional mineral supply chains (Prof Wada online via Kyoto, Lee Tan in person)
3:30 to 4:00PM	Afternoon Tea Break
4:00 to 5:00PM Plenary/Keynote	Eszter Klemen (online presentation): The role of education in transformative change and the potential contribution of ecological economics
5:00 to 6:00 PM Presentations/Workshop	Theme: Educating Change Agents 1. Carla Liuzzo: Embedding Ecological Economics in Australian Business Education: Degrowth for Preparing Leaders for Sustainable Futures 2. Louise Fitzgerald & Jinki Trevillian: Equipping Business Graduates for Global Complexity and Uncertain Times Ahead	Workshop: Weaving a Basket of Benefits: Exploring Ecosystem Service Connections and Interactions across Landscapes, Scales, and Institutions , with Andrew Buckwell and ED Morgan
6:30 to 7:00PM	Break
7:00 to 9:00 PM	Conference Dinner, Bonfire & Music (Nearby Location , Additional $35/head for dinner)
	End of DAY 2
	Day 3: Sunday 6 October
8:30 to 9:00AM	Registration table opens & tea and coffee on arrival
9:00 to 10:00AM Keynote	Erik Gomez-Baggethun: The future of work: Insights from ecological economics
10:00 to 11:00AM	1. Jane O'Sullivan: Population growth, the labour market and inequality: why population peak and decline is a social as well as environmental imperative 2. Cade Diehm: Beyond human centered design: digital systems and non-human expertise 3. Cade Diehm: Anticipating a Green Panopticon	Theme: Climate Response 2 1. Fiona Ryan: Which climate policies are mutually beneficial for developing and developed economies? 2. KC Adaina: Determinants of Household Decision Choice on Cooking Energy Fuel amongst the indigenous Zeliangrong Community in the Himalayan region of Rural Manipur, India: Do Cultural Practices Matter?
11:00 to 11:30 AM	Morning Tea Break
11:30AM to 12:30PM Keynote	Tom Rayner: Fish out of water: Integrating ecology, economics & engagement to drive adoption of modern fish-protection screens
12:30 to 1:30PM	Lunch Break
12:45 to 1:30PM	ANZSEE AGM - All members and observers welcome

2024 ANZSEE Conference at Moreton Bay Research Centre, 37 Fraser Street, Dunwich, North Stradbroke Island
	Main Lecture Room (unless otherwise in brackets)	Second Lecture Room OR Meeting Room
1:30 to 2:30 PM Presentations	Theme: Fisheries ecological economics, Session 1 1. Boyd Blackwell: Fish and river restoration economic considerations within the context of fish screening 2. Lachlan Jaensch: Liquid assets balancing public and private benefits of fish protection screens 3. Andrew Buckwell: The social license of salmon agriculture in Tasmania fulfilling the social bargain	Theme: Food System Sustainability 1. 1. Esther Esho: The Role of Environmental Sustainability in Enhancing Food and Nutrition Security (online) 2. Sabrina Chakori: Post-growth food enterprises in Australia: the role of exnovation 3. Priyambada Joshi: The future of beef production: from risk assessment to sustainable management
2:30 to 3:30 PM Keynote	Michelle Maloney: Building Earth-centred economies, ethics and governance in a time of crisis: the critical role of civil society
3:30 to 4:00PM	Afternoon Tea Break
4:00 to 5:00PM Workshop/Presentations	1. Paul Brown: Building Resilience in City Waste Management Systems: Supporting Public Reporting Towards Degrowth 2. Jordan Roods: Why Circular Economy's vision to 'regenerate nature' needs earth-centred governance 3. Rodrigo Zilleruelo Estanol: Discovering values and drivers for Nature-based Solutions (NbS): The association between relational values and NbS, evidence from a choice experiment in Australia	Themes: Food System Sustainability 2 & Restoration Ecology Economics 1 1. Van Thuy Dao: Value Addition in Agriculture: Evaluating the Effectiveness of Government Incentives and Programs 2. Khaqan Khasif: Australian farmer's perception of carbon farming and implication for broad acre agriculture. 3. Boyd Blackwell: Oyster reef restoration social cost-benefit analysis of the Port Stephens project
5:00 to 5:30PM	Conference recap and close
18:00 PM	Dinner at own expense (rsvp if need dinner at MBRS)
18:00 PM	End of DAY 3
	Day 4: Monday 7 October - Optional Field trips
9:00 AM to 12:30 PM	Field trip options (please rsvp): 1. Gorge walk, Point Lookup (public transport) - free 2. Blue/brown Lake hike (6km return) - free/tour company OR 3. Moreton Bay boat trip - charge All followed by Lunch at Hotel
12:30 to 2:30PM	Lunch at Point Lookout Hotel (at own cost, catch public bus or own transport - please rsvp)	